

An overview of speakers' short biography for the conference 'The European Digital Single Market: Current and Future Challenges in the European Union law' on-line 21st – 22nd June 2021

Author(s)/e-mail address	Biography
Mária T. Patakyová/Comenius University in Bratislava maria.patakyova5@uniba.sk	Mária T. Patakyová is assistant professor at Institute of European Law, Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovakia. She completed master studies in law with distinction (2014) and PhD studies (2017) at Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava. She is a graduate of the Cambridge Diploma in English Law and European Union Law (2012). She lectures several compulsory courses, such as EU law 1 (general course), EU Law 2 (Internal Market and Protection of Competition) and partially Civil Law 2 (Contracts). She teaches optional courses (Proceedings before the CJEU, Internal Market of the European Union) and she participates in moot courts (CEEMC, ELMC) as a (main) coach. She was giving lectures also in Strasbourg at the University of Strasbourg, France. Part of her studies were done at Faculty of Law, Ljubljana University, Slovenia. She was also studying and doing research at Tilburg Law School, the Netherlands. Regarding the research, she has focused mainly on national and European competition law (including digital markets), protection of human rights in Europe, business human rights, internal market law, migration law and consumer law. She has published in journals and proceedings from conference both in Slovakia and abroad. She has been part of several national and EU grant projects, including JM Network, JM Module, JM Centre of Excellence.
Prabhpreet Singh/Manipal University Jaipur prabhpreet.singh@jaipur.manipal.edu	Mr. Prabhpreet Singh is working as Assistant Professor of Law at School of Law, Manipal University Jaipur. He is also working as Coordinator, Legal Aid Club and Moot Court Society. He has a work experience of 2.5 years plus. He holds a specialization in Constitutional Law and has been continuously engaged in teaching subjects like Comparative Constitutional Law, Environmental Law and Administrative Law.

	Academically, he has presented papers and participated as speaker in more than 30 International and National Conferences. He has published more than 5 research papers in International Journals. He has taken 6 Guest Lectures on Comparative Constitutional Law in various universities including South Ural State University (Russia), Ural State Law University (Russia), National Law College, Nepal & University of Silesia in Katowice, Faculty of Social Science, Poland. He has received “Academic Excellence Award” from South Ural State University Russia. He is also editorial board member of Brazilian Journal of Alternative Dispute Resolution-RBADR. https://rbadr.emnuvens.com.br/rbadr/rbadr/about/editorialBoard, Reviewer in the journal entitled International Relations and Diplomacy (ISSN 2328-2134) & Editorial board member of the journal «Business, Management and Law» (Yekaterinburg, Russia) ISSN: 2072-1722.
Michal Petr/Palacký University michal.petr@upol.cz	Michal Petr is head of the Department of International and European Law at the Faculty of Law of Palacky University Olomouc, Czech Republic, and a senior researcher there. He specializes in EU law, in particular competition law, state aid, public procurement and regulation of network industries. Before his academic career, he was working for the Czech Competition Authority, first as Head of Legislation Department (2003 - 2009), then Director of the Section of Legislation and International Relations (2009 - 2010) and finally the Vice-Chairman responsible for competition law and policy (2010 – 2015). Michal authored numerous publications concerning competition law, regulation of network industries and due process. He is a member of the editorial board of the ANTITRUST Revue of competition law and Public Governance, Administration and Finances Law Review, as well as national correspondent for the European Competition and Regulatory Law Review and a member of the advisory appellate committee of the Czech Competition Authority and the Czech National Bank.
Alexander Antonov/ TalTech* alexander.antonov@taltech.ee	Alexander’s research interests sit at the intersection of Public International Law and Technology Governance. In the course of his doctoral studies at TalTech University, he has published two book chapters and one discussion paper on the emerging phenomena of ‘AI Governance’ and ‘Data Protection and Cybersecurity’ at EU level with a view to understanding their interrelationship with legal sciences, drawing on STS and Public International Law scholarship. Prior to commencing

* Tallinn University of Technology

	doctoral studies in Estonia, Alexander graduated from the University of Southern Denmark with degrees in B.Sc. European Studies and M.Sc. International Security and Law.
Oleksandr Pastukhov/University of Malta oleksandr.pastukhov@um.edu.mt	Dr. Oleksandr Pastukhov is a leading European expert in ICT and privacy law, academic and government consultant. He is a tenured Associate Professor with the Department of Information Policy and Governance at the University of Malta and an Associate Researcher with the Law, Science, Technology & Society (LSTS) research group at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB). Dr. Pastukhov obtained his first law degree with a major in Private International Law from Kiev Taras Shevchenko University in Ukraine (1997), LL.M. from Northwestern University School of Law in the U.S. (2000), Ph.D. in Civil Law from Koretsky Institute of State and Law in Ukraine (2003) and Ph.D. in Law from Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium (2008). He spent his postdoc years at the VU University Amsterdam in the Netherlands and Strathclyde University in Glasgow, Scotland. Dr. Pastukhov is a regular participant and speaker at various national and international fora dedicated to ICT law and policy issues. He is a devoted advocate of privacy, e-governance and media freedom in his native Ukraine and beyond. Dr. Pastukhov is a solo author of a book on digital copyright and some 30 articles and book chapters on diverse legal aspects of ICT use and development, trademark protection online, e-government introduction, Open and Free Software development, ISPs' liability and e-commerce taxation. He has also initiated and administered a number of ICT law-related research, consultancy and training projects in several European countries.
Adam Máčaj (PhD can.)/Comenius University in Bratislava adam.macaj@flaw.uniba.sk	Adam Máčaj is a PhD. candidate in European law at Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovakia, focusing on issues of human rights, non-discrimination, rule of law, and their enforcement.
Hovsep Kocharyan/ Palacký University arthurkochar@mail.ru	Hovsep Kocharyan is a PhD student at Palacky University Olomouc (Olomouc, Czech Republic) and at Karl-Franzens-Universität (Graz, Austria). Previously he has studied law in Russian-Armenian (Slavonic) State University (Yerevan, Armenia) and in Masaryk State University (Brno, Czech Republic) with honors. He has published 15 scientific papers.

Sára Kiššová (PhD student)/Comenius University in Bratislava sara.kissova@flaw.uniba.sk	Sára Kiššová is a PhD student at Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Law, Institute of European Law. Her research is mainly focused on constitutional and institutional law of the EU.
Viktorija Soņeca (PhD student)/University of Latvia & Associate at law firm ‘Sorainen’ viktorija.soneca@gmail.com	Mrs Viktorija Soņeca is a lawyer at Sorainen Latvia, former director of the CJEU Department of the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Latvia - represented the Republic of Latvia at the CJEU. Also represented the Ministry of Justice in the Parliament, the Cabinet of Ministers, and inter-ministry meetings. LLM, a Ph.D. student at the Faculty of Law of the University of Latvia.
Javad Keypour (Junior researcher)/TalTech javad.keypour@taltech.ee	Javad Keypour is an early-stage researcher and PhD student at the Law Department, School of Business and Governance, Tallinn University of Technology (Taltech). He has worked for the Iranian Vice Presidency for Science and Technology office for five years as an energy markets expert, and six years at ATEF, the private sector think tank based in Tehran. He is also the chief editor of The Energy Diplomacy Journal, published in Iran. Javad gained his MA in 2019 in international relations and his MSc in chemical engineering in 2011. His primary research focus is energy security, EU-Russia energy relations and EU energy law and policy.
Tea Kookmaa/TalTech & NJORD Law Firm tea.kookmaa@njordlaw.ee	Tea Kookmaa is an attorney who specializes in data protection, IT law, consumer protection law and general contract law. She is a member of the IT and data protection law team at NJORD Law Firm. Tea is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/E), issued by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). She has a Master's Degree in Law from the University of Tartu.
Blanca Vítová/ Palacký University bl.vitova@gmail.com	Assoc. prof. JUDr. Blanka Vítová, Ph.D., LL.M. works at the Department of Private Law and Civil Procedure and as the vice-dean for organisation and development at the Faculty of Law, Palacky University in Olomouc. She is a member of Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence and Jean Monner Network in European Law at the Faculty of Law, Palacky University. From 2007-2012 she was a member of the Czech Ministry of Justice's recodification Committee for the preparation of the new Civil Code. She regularly publishes in the Czech and foreign professional journals, takes part in the national and international scientific project activities, gives lectures at international conferences and is one of the co-authors of prestigious Civil Code commentaries. She specialises in the contract law and consumer law.

Zoltán Gyurász (PhD can.)/Comenius University in Bratislava zoltan.gyurasz@flaw.uniba.sk	Mgr. Zoltán Gyurász (1994) is a graduate of the Faculty of Law of Comenius University in Bratislava (2019). He is currently an internal doctoral student in the field of theory and history of the state and law at the Department of Theory of Law and Philosophy of Law and works at the Institute of Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law, Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava. With the topic of the dissertation: "Legal, social and philosophical aspects of the application of artificial intelligence" and with the topic of the rigorous thesis: "Modalities of regulation of new technologies". Since 2020, he has also been cooperating externally with the IEEE Transactions on Technology and Society (IEEE-TTS). In his publishing activities, he focuses mainly on the legal aspects of artificial intelligence. His pedagogical activity focuses on the field of Theory of Law and Legal Informatics. He regularly publishes in domestic and foreign scientific periodicals and participates in domestic and foreign conferences.
Dr. Nick Guldemond/Leiden University & Sechenov First Moscow State Medical University nick@guldemondic.com	Dr. Guldemond is professor Integrated care and technology at Sechenov First Moscow State Medical University and senior researcher at the National eHealth Living Lab of Leiden University Medical Center, Dept of Public Health and Primary Care. He holds a degree in medicine and electric engineering. During his career, he worked as a clinical researcher in numerous health innovation programs for pharma, medtech and health IT. He is a key expert on Digital Health and integrated care for various governments on different continents, NGO's, multi-nationals and start-ups.
Ondřej Filipec/Palacký University ondrej.filipec@upol.cz	Ondrej Filipec, Ph.D. is Assistant professor at the Faculty of Law, Palacký University in Olomouc. He is Czech political scientist specialized in EU affairs, international security and public policy in general.
Thomas Hoffman/TalTech thomas.hoffmann@taltech.ee	Thomas Hoffmann is Professor of Private Law at TalTech Law School, Tallinn University of Technology, Estonia. He graduated and also obtained his PhD in law at the University of Heidelberg. After his admission to the German bar, he worked as an associated lawyer for Noerr LLP in their offices in Kyiv and Berlin, as research fellow at the Institute of East European Law in Kiel, and as DAAD Lecturer in Law at the University of Tartu (Estonia). Thomas' research

	focusses on comparative private law, here especially in insolvency law, private international law, contracts in digital environments, and consumer law. He provided comprehensive research on Estonian, German and international law to various stakeholders within numerous EC tenders. Thomas keeps track with forensic issues by serving as Of Counsel for the firm law bnt Attorneys in CEE in their Tallinn office. A complete list of his publications is available at <http://bit.ly/1fz4RkT>.
Jozef Andraško/Comenius University in Bratislava jozef.andrasko@flaw.uniba.sk	JUDr. Jozef Andraško, PhD is the head of the Institute of Information Technology Law and Intellectual Property Law, Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava. He completed study stays at the University of Iceland with a focus on international law and at Tilburg University with a focus on information and communication technology law and intellectual property law. He specialises on cyber security, electronic identity, open data and autonomous vehicles. As part of his legislative expertise, he was a co-author of executive regulation on method of categorization and content of security measures of information technologies of public administration (Regulation No. 179/2020 Coll.). As a member of Jean Monnet Network “European Union and the Challenges of Modern Society” he analyses EU cyber security legislation and legal issues regarding autonomous vehicles.
Aleksi Kajander (PhD student)/TalTech aleksi.kajander@gmail.com	Aleksi Kajander is a Ph.D. candidate and junior researcher at the Tallinn University of Technology for Law and Technology. He holds a Master’s degree in Investment Treaty Arbitration from Uppsala University as well as a Master’s degree in Law and Technology from the Tallinn University of Technology. His current research focuses on adapting Ostrom’s commons theory to smart city data and analyzing the need for reforms in the legal framework from a competition law perspective accordingly. Besides his research and studies, he practices law at a business law firm.
Tomáš Gábriš/Palacký University & Slovak Academy of Sciences gabris.tomas@gmail.com	Tomáš Gábriš is a researcher at the Palacky University in the Czech Republic, Professor of Law at the Trnava University in Slovakia and researcher at the Slovak Academy of Sciences. I teach courses on law of modern technologies, and I published two textbooks in this field. I co-authored the commentary on Slovak Cybersecurity Act.
Agnes Kasper/TalTech	Agnes Kasper, PhD, is a Senior Lecturer of Law and Technology in the Department of Law of the Tallinn University of Technology (TalTech). She holds diplomas in international business, law and

agnes.kasper@taltech.ee	management, and also received formal trainings on technical aspects of cybersecurity and digital evidence. Dr Kasper served at embassies, human rights organizations and she was leading the legal department in an IT consultancy and development company. She has also acted in advisory capacity in consultations with governments on issues relating to cybersecurity, as well as an external expert for the European Commission. Her current research focuses on regulatory aspects of cybersecurity.
Matúš Mesarčík/Comenius University in Bratislava matus.mesarcik@uniba.sk	Matúš Mesarčík is an Assistant Professor at the Institute of Information Technology Law and Intellectual Property Law, Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava. He lectures courses on Personal Data Protection and Information Technology Law. Lately his research focus on regulation of new technologies namely AI with emphasis on transparency obligations.
Gizem Gültekin/Várkonyi/University of Szeged gizemgultekin@windowslive.com	Doctor Gizem Gültekin Várkonyi is currently working as a research assistant at the Faculty of Law of the University of Szeged, International and Regional Studies Institute. She holds experience in both the public and private sector and obtained her PHD in Law in the year 2020.
Pablo, Martínez-Ramil (PhD researcher)/Palacký University pablomramil@usal.es	Mgr. Pablo Martínez Ramil is completing his PhD studies at the Department of International and European Law of the Palacký University. He finished his bachelor studies on Law and Political Science in the University of Salamanca (USAL) and his master studies on International and European Law in the Palacký University. His PhD research deals with the impact of Artificial Intelligence in the EU Human Rights legal framework.