Workshop:

Modern technologies in teaching and EU legal practice – new approaches and challenges in the times of a war in Ukraine

November 3rd 2022

Venue: Faculty of Law, Palacky University, Olomouc Czech Republic
17. listopadu 8, Olomouc, Building A, Rotunda

An international workshop with the involvement of teachers and researchers from Partner universities and with participation of the leading experts from state institutions and national associations of European studies, will be held in English. This workshop is organised under the Jean Monnet Network „European Union and the Challenges of Modern Society (Legal Issues of Digitalization, Robotization, Cyber Security and Prevention of Hybrid Threats)“, including Palacký University in Olomouc (Czech Republic) as the principal coordinator, the Heidelberg University (Germany), the Tallinn University of Technology (Estonia), the Comenius University in Bratislava (Slovakia), the Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv (Ukraine) and in cooperation with the Czech Association of European Studies.

Programme of the Workshop

The workshop will be focused on new methodological and pedagogical approaches in teaching in the light of modern technologies. The proposed workshop will concentrate mainly on opportunities for improving teaching and learning processes in higher education deriving from these factors.

Other very important directions of the workshop are dedicated to the issues of the effective usage of modern technologies in searching of adequate employment for graduates from universities and other relevant issues of digital labour platforms (including labour law questions concerning employees in the digital platforms). Some other issues connected with implementation of modern technologies in practice will be also discussed – for instance the implication of usage of modern technologies in consumer law including the consumer protection in the relations of digital platforms. The usage of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in judicial and legal practice of different European states creates a part of workshop as well.
